Be On The Lookout

A vehicle is being used in thefts of motor scooters from the Georgetown area and the 1D and 2D downtown areas. The vehicle is believed to be occupied by three suspects. The suspects lift the scooters up into the van. The van has heavily tinted windows which conceal the occupants and stolen cargo. The vehicle is described as a newer model Ford Econoline Van, full size, possibly 15 passenger model, dark green in color with heavily tinted windows all the way around. DC Tag number GT1827. Anyone with information can contact Officer Elliott with the Focus Mission Unit at 202-841-1808.

Noteworthy Arrest

An operation from July 6 to the present has netted over 35 plus arrests for what officials describe as "Car Jockeying." This is a term for individuals who assist motorists in finding parking places for them and then charge for the service. This is illegal and can result in arrest. The charge would be Aggressive Panhandling. The operation was conducted on the 2300 and 2400 block of 18th St. Excellent work to officers Dustin Roeder and Andrew Zabasky for their work. 🧑🏻‍🚔
